Artist Immersion at the Murano and MoG

(2. April 2009, 10:41 by Derek Young) – Staycation?

It seems like the perfect match. The Hotel Murano and its floor by floor gallery of glass artists meets the Museum of Glass. Yes I'm sure they were already acquainted, but now, the two are working together to bring its customers artist based vacation packages.

Stay at the hotel and surround yourself with the works of Martin Blank, Flo Perkins or Preston Singletary. Then, head to the Museum of Glass to watch them work. Witness their process. See their emotions. This isn't something every town can offer.

You know ... we kinda like the idea.

Martin Blank

March 30, 2009 to April 17, 2009

Flo Perkins

April 22, 2009 to April 26, 2009

Preston Singletary

July 11, 2009 to October 11, 2009
