

may/june 2008 hdmag.com

hospitality design

celebrating excellence the awards issue

winner: judges' award for best use of art
.....
hotel murano

Susan Taylor holds two very different worlds together. A lover and a keen appreciator of the most daring of colors and style, Susan also has possessed dramatic talents since childhood. Growing up in a small town in Oregon, Susan's artistic and creative talents were nurtured by her mother, who encouraged her to explore her imagination and to create her own world.

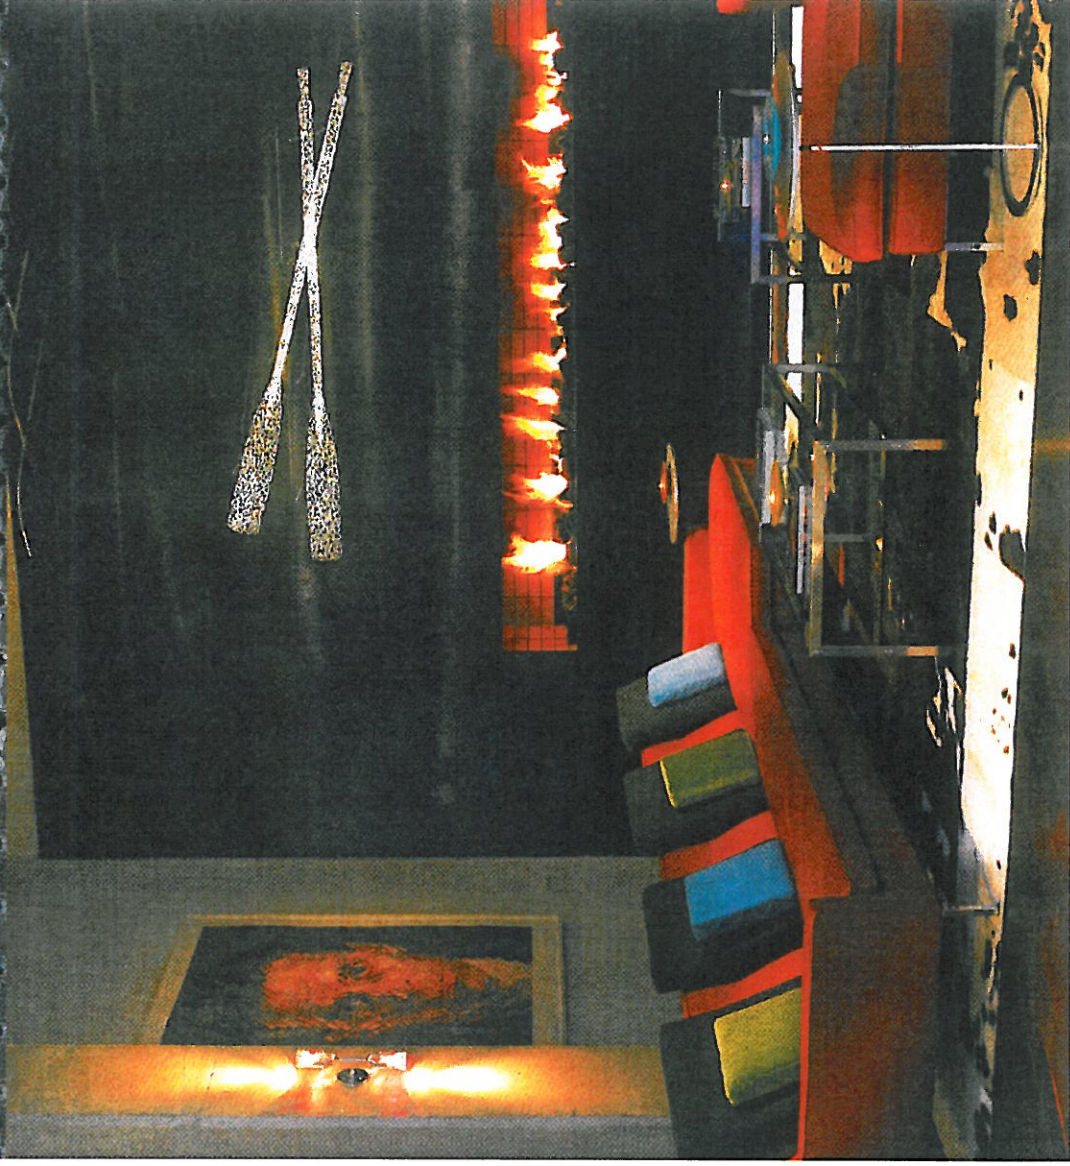

She says: "My life and art are the result of honoring my own way of domestic life from the safe distance of my studio."

I have the luxury of exploring the complexities of the most daring of colors and style, Susan also has possessed dramatic talents since childhood. Growing up in a small town in Oregon, Susan's artistic and creative talents were nurtured by her mother, who encouraged her to explore her imagination and to create her own world.

SUSAN TAYLOR GLASGOW

Hotel Murano

Tecoma, Washington

Owner: Providence Hotels

Architecture Firm: TRA Architects

Seattle

Providence Hotels' Project Architect

David Kennedy

Interior Design Firm: CorsoStacoff

Portland, Oregon

Interior Design Project Team Denise

Corso, James Stacoff, Marlene Gillis

Heather Gee-Pape, Michelle Nidorger, and

Dann Baker

Art Curator: Tessa Pappas

Photography: David Phelps